

- “Advanced Fly Fishing For All”

- Single Hand Rod to the Switch Rod-It's a Natural Evolution if You want the Big Fish

Dan Pribanic will be the first to tell you that his personal fishing techniques for steelhead have seen an evolution from the single hand rod and indicator fishing to switch rods and swinging big streamers targeting the larger more aggressive steelhead in the world class fishery that comprise northern Ohio's rivers and streams. If you fly fish at all and are not familiar with switch rods or the two handed style then this seminar with one of the truly nice guys of the fishing world is for you. Should you miss Dan's seminars he will be on hand all four days with a variety of gear to talk about and sell at the Chagrin River Outfitter's booth.

- “Fly Fishing Rivers 101” (the basics)

There are not many that know the rivers of Northern Ohio better than Don Schonauer and even less that have traversed the nooks and crannies where the steelhead trout hide for as long as Don. Join this retired high school principal turned fishing guide, taxidermist and professional animal trapper as he explains the gear, the tricks and where to start fishing in pursuit of Ohio's famed “silver bullet”.

- “Smallmouth Fishing from Cleveland to Conneaut”

Many seminars have been done about the legendary Lake Erie small mouth bass that have focused on the Islands and the western end of the Big Lake. Join Mentor, Ohio professional bass fisherman Richie Glavic as he shares the best ways to find and catch small mouth on the eastern half of his home lake. These easy tricks and tips will be helpful to any fisherman, whether you're a rookie or a pro when it comes to boating the really big bronzebacks. Glavic who has finished in the top five in 7 or his last 8 tournaments is rated as a first-class fisherman who is recognized for his abilities by top notch sponsors Vic's Sports Center, Gander Mountain, Vicious Fishing Line, and St. Croix Rods.

- “Fifty Years of Trolling for the Big Fish”

With over fifty years of charter and tournament fishing Ron Johnson and Marv DeGreen have put walleye, perch and steelhead in the box when no one else could. Learn their tested Lake Erie Islands and Central Basin trolling tactics for shallow and deep-water fishing. Instead of just talking about it this seminar will also feature a short film on setting up your boat for trolling and a question and answer session. Handouts on useful websites and tasty recipes will be available as well.

- “Inland Fishing for Everyone”

Not everyone has an expensive boat and endless cash for tackle. This audience driven seminar conducted by Bass Pro Shops & Microspoons Pro Staffer Carl “Big Daddy” Bachtel and 12 year old son Nick will feature your questions about the cheapest and best ways to catch bass, bluegills, crappies, walleyes and muskies at some of the premier and not so common inland lakes. Good fishing and family fun can go hand in hand. Nick will be set up after the seminar to teach how to tie your own worm harnesses cheaply. Bring your questions about techniques and locations and see if you can stump Big Daddy.

Although, the next speaker, legendary Joe “Kastaway” Kulis comes to the Sports show to discuss his numerous hunting excursions, he’s also encouraging his fishing fans to stop by and chat. For “Kastaway” his love of the outdoors is so vast he loves to talk about how he’s living the “Best of Both Worlds –his adventures by land and on water.

- “Camp Fire Stories with a Legend”

The list of accomplishments is long for Joe “Kastaway” Kulis: Having fished and hunted in most of the 50 United States, all the provinces of Canada and 10 other countries, bagging 18 record book animals including a world record in Russia, a Cape Buffalo charging at 10 yards, and multiple fishing adventures that didn’t always go the way they were supposed to, Joe has picked up a story or two. As the host of “The Outdoor World of Kastaway Kulis” television show long before outdoor TV was fashionable Kastaway knows how to spin a yarn. Come share the twinkle in Joe’s eye and excitement in his voice as he and a few friends sit around a “campfire” and tell stories about the one that got away and some that didn’t. Audience questions and participation is encouraged.

- “Working Retrievers – The basics of owning a working dog”

Whether you hunt or not, if you have a working breed of dog at home that is only trained to find the remote you are cheating yourself and your pet. This basic retrieving seminar is for everyone with a dog. Although much of what is demonstrated is geared toward a sporting application, everything is rooted in the basics of obedience and building a rapport with your dog. Simple obedience, remote sends, and multiple retrieves, are some of the things that will be demonstrated from dogs of various ages. Additionally, electronic training collars and other training methods will be discussed. Audience participation is highly encouraged; feel free to ask questions. The only thing being solicited or sold is responsible dog ownership and maybe a chance at a great partner in the field. The Inside the Great Outdoors Retrieving Team dogs are pretty cool to watch too.

True confessions of a Turkey Hunting Addict-How to Become One

How the NWTF, Turkeys and Turkey Hunting have changed over the years

Join Matt McDermott and Shawn Dickey for an informative question and answer session on the wild turkey and how you can get started. With over 40 years of turkey hunting experience between them, they will share a little of their intense passion for the hunting of this incredible large game animal and how to get that passion yourself. From basic calling to calling contests Matt & Shawn are here to help you become addicted to what many call the best hunting sport in the world. They’ll also discuss how turkeys and turkey hunting has changed over the years. Don’t know what a turkey hunting grand slam is? Ask Shawn he’ll fill you in.

- “Field Dressing Your Deer the Right Way”

From the moment the animal is harvested, deer field dressing guidelines are essential to preserving the meat and your trophy. An in-depth deer field dressing demonstration will highlight proper techniques, best practices and safety precautions. Delicious samples of venison chili and stew will be served following each presentation.

- The National Wild Turkey Federation will be holding a sanctioned calling contest. Noted callers from several states will be competing for the $750 first place purse but more importantly the much needed points to qualify for the Grand National Contest.
- World Class archery hunter and holder of 16 Pope & Young titles, Michele Leque will be hosting a Champaign Luncheon for ladies of the outdoors (tickets still available). Michele will then be doing an hour long archery hunting camp fire chat in the afternoon at the Hunting & Fishing Camp